OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 16 March 1964

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Mr. Cary and Mr. Warner met with Senator James O. Eastland and Senator Thomas J. Dodd regarding the [REDACTED] case. See Memo for the Record for details.

2. [REDACTED] Talked with Senator Henry M. Jackson who introduced me to [REDACTED], a young man who is interested in employment with the CIA. The Senator thought [REDACTED] had excellent qualifications and requested I make the appropriate arrangements. [REDACTED]

3. [REDACTED] Senator Jackson stated he had been receiving considerable mail in connection with the [REDACTED] articles on [REDACTED]. I went through the basic story on this situation and Senator Jackson grasped all of the pertinent points immediately.
He offered to be of any assistance possibly including talking with Senator Eastland if this were necessary. He volunteered his opinion of Jay Sourwine's integrity.

4. [REDACTED] Talked with Representative Charles E.
Bennett in connection with his letter to the Agency of 9 March 1964. I explained to him that at the Subcommittee meeting the previous week we discussed the very questions raised in his letter, i.e., number of Russian personnel in Cuba and the role played by communists in the Panama crisis. I reviewed this with him generally. He was most appreciative and no written reply will be necessary.

5. [REDACTED] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called to say that he had confirmed with Senator Pastore the Agency's appearance before the Committee for its annual briefing on Wednesday, 18 March at 3:00 P.M. Mr. Elder and Dr.
Chamberlain have been advised.

6. [] Talked with Jack White, in the office of Representative Joel T. Broyhill, and advised him that on the basis of our prior meeting, the Inspector General had thoroughly investigated the claims made by [] that he found no basis for [] claim for overtime pay nor did he find any basis for action on the "criminal charges" which [] had made. (See IG memo.) Mr. White said [] had been in touch with them repeatedly but he was going to close out the case indicating that Mr. Broyhill had received the substance of the IG's report and was not in a position to take any further action.

7. [] Met with Mrs. Janet W. Fraser, Administrative Assistant to Congressman George A. Goodling (R., Pa.), and advised her that we were unable to comment on the Congressman's letter concerning the York newspaper report of the JOURNAL AMERICAN items. I provided Mrs. Fraser with a copy of the 3 March WASHINGTON POST item and of Senator Dodd's floor speech of 17 February. Mrs. Fraser thanked us for the assistance and indicated no written response would be expected.

8. [] Met with Mr. John H. Martiny, Associate Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Congressman James H. Morrison had introduced a new pay bill in the House today that was similar to the bill as amended on the floor last week with the exception of provision for elected Members of Congress. Such a bill would obviously require quite a bit of change before final action could be taken on it.

25X1

9. [] Met with Mr. William P. Guledge, Staff Director & Counsel, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that there are no present plans for introduction of a pay bill through the Senate Committee, but that he is aware of our interest and will advise should such a bill come up for consideration in that Committee.
